NUMBER 158.

BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

DRY GOODS
AT
GUTHRIE & BROTHERS,
118 Fourth Street.

Look to Your Interests.

The people are aware that D. O'Hare, No. 42 Main street, is the oldest, largest and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the rare opportunities afforded by Mr. O'Hare. To country and city merchants he offers peculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line he cannot be equalled. Whoever wants to travel, whether with a small carpet-bag or a mammoth trunk, need go no further than to the Great Western Trunk Factory of Mr. O'Hare.

His manufacture is a credit to Louisville, and should meet with extensive patronage. Hundreds of workmen are employed, and thousands of dollars weekly disbursed. As a matter of course, pride, and to subserve economy, purchasers will consult their best interests in purchasing of Mr. O'Hare.

Mr. I. Grauman, the well known auctioneer, is ready to accept any kind of consignments of new and second-hand furniture, which will be promptly attended to. The sales of the above mentioned article will be every Thursday during the season. Remittances made immediately after the sale. Commission cheaper than any other auction house in the city. Particular attention is given to out-door sales and real estate. The well known character of Mr. Grauman as a salesman requires no recommendation here, for years, he has been favorably known among the business men of the city, and especially by the foreign population. Remember the place, at L. Kahn & Co.'s new commission house, 494 Main street. Regular sales of dry goods, boots and shoes, notions, &c., every Wednesday.

N. B.—Liberal cash advances made on consignments. 1515 Main Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad.

Trains leave and arrive at New Albany as follows:

Mitchell Accommodation leaves at 1:15, p. m. St. Louis Day Express arrives at 8:05, p. m. Chicago and St. Louis Express Mail leaves at 10:10, a. m.; arrives at 3:10, p. m.

Chicago and St. Louis Night Express leaves at 10:15, p. m.; arrives at 6:35, a. m. 1515 Main

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—J. M. Armstrong, on Main street, opposite the National Hotel, is now in receipt of some very nice styles of young men's and children's clothing. Also men's clothing of all sizes, together with a full stock of the celebrated Winchester style of shirt, hose, gloves, and under garments for ladies and gentlemen, which he is offering at very low prices. Call and see him and examine his stock.

UNHEALTHY BREAD.—In no article of food should more caution be exercised than the "staff of life"—bread. We are told that it is healthy and nutritious good flour and pure water are necessary. Hurley's Quick Yeast is the best article in use, and in using it there is no fear of swallowing a dyspepsy with your breakfast.

LOOK AT THE AUTHORITY.

KOHN, Aug. 16, 1859.

DA. ROBACK.—Dear Sir: It is due to you and the public, more especially the afflicted, to say that I have given your invaluable Scalpian Blood Purifier a fair trial in a number of cases of diseases arising from unhealthy blood, in all of which it has exceeded my expectations, and comes fully up to its recommendations. I do, therefore, with pleasure, recommend it to all the afflicted whose disease indicate a remedy of that description.

Yours, &c., JAMES HAYES.

ADVICE TO LADIES.—We are aware there are many of our lady readers who are complaining of weakness and debility. Our advice is to go at once and get some of McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It is a delicious tonic, and the just thing to strengthen and invigorate the whole organization, and purify the blood. See advertisement in another column. Sold here by all drug stores.

SHAKESPEARE ON DRESS.—Shakespeare, who, according to a western editor, was a writer of no little ability and of considerable originality, says, very sagaciously, that "the apparel oft proclaims the man." This fact is unchangeable, and the great poet flourished two hundred and seventy-five years later, he would, doubtless, have made old Polonius go a step further, and advise his son to purchase all his apparel, only at No. 4 Masonic Temple. Mr. Swan has an excellent assortment of American gentlemen's furnishings good as can be found in the city, and he is prepared to furnish every thing in his line.

PEBBLE SPECTACLES.—If you want a pair of fine spectacles, either the public, priscipal, or crystal, go to P. W. Ramsey's, on Third street, where you will find a great variety. He can not fail to suit you.

COMMERCIAL BANK OF KENTUCKY.

We see that the Commercial Bank is asking for an increase of stock to the amount of nearly a million, and that the Legislature is disposed to grant the request. What is the necessity for any more bank stock in this Commonwealth? We have already more than any State of the same revenue. Whilst banks can make from ten to twenty per cent., increased capital may be good for capitalists, but what advantage is it to the State?

We don't blame bank directors for making money for the stockholders by means of the privileges granted to the State; but we blame the State for granting some privileges. Every one knows why bank stock is in bills of exchange in preference to notes; the premiums run up the profits to double, or more, than six per cent.

Commercial Bank seems to be uninterested in this matter. Her capital is $1,100,000; her notes discounted, at the last showing, were $288,103.67; bills of exchange bought and maturing $1,056,214.54. Only about one-eighth of the loans of this bank are on notes at six per cent.; the rest is in bills with the power of self-government, we shall oppose it; but that only look to fairness and justice, not a right to object to.

GOOD NEWS.—"At a time like this, when the stock of dry lumber is small and hally as sorted," we take pleasure in informing the public that Alexander, Ellis & Co. have three million feet of pine, cedar, and other lumber, and they are turning out large quantities of sash, doors, blinds, flooring, and every article of building material, of the best quality, their stock is now equal to any in the city. Call at their office, or at M. a. street, nearly opposite the Galt House, Louisville, Ky.

FURNITURE.—We invite the special attention of strangers visiting the city, or persons contemplating house-keeping, to the large and elegant assortment of furniture at the ware-rooms of Messrs. John M. Stokes & Son. They have constantly on hand the best specimens of oak, cherry and maple furniture to be found in any one house in the Western country, which they are selling at the lowest prices. Call at their office, or at M. a. street, their line to their door, and see the latest and richest goods imported this season. Store on the southeast corner of Fourth and Market streets.

RIVER NEWS. — JAN. 20, 1862.

Yesterday was a beautiful, clear and pleasant day. The river, after reaching the height of about seventeen feet on the falls, commenced falling on Wednesday night, and had fallen last evening about fifteen inches, making about fifteen feet nine inches water on the falls.

The river at Pittsburgh was falling with eight feet water in the channel.

Business on the river yesterday was quite active. The Chancellor, Jacob Strader, Scioto and Lancaster, were discharging and receiving.

The Tempest for Nashville, and Time for Tennessee river, cleared with good trip.

The Tigris and Eagle arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday, with a number of barges laden with coal.

The Moses Taylor, Capt. Erwin, L. A.
Sherley and Clerks, were leaving the city wharf for Memphis and intermediate ports
this evening at 5 o'clock.

The Chancellor, a good boat, with excellent accommodations and experienced officers, will clear for New Orleans and all way ports, this evening at 5 o'clock. Capt. Sol. Malton, is commander, and M. C. Foster has charge of the office.

The Telegraph, in command of Capt. Hill-drich, is in the mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati at noon to-day.

The Magnolia is due from New Orleans today.

The Autocrat was due from Evansville last night.

The Republic is due to-night, and the Fanny Boat on Sunday from New Orleans.

The John Thompson going into the Wa-
bach in a few days.

The Pygmae cleared for New Orleans last evening with a good freight, a lot of stock and a good list of passengers. We noticed among the passengers, Capt. Greer, of the new steamer
Java, on his way to New Orleans, will return in a few days, to see after his new boat.

Madrid, Oct. 1.—On Friday evening the Madrid, having had a long and eventful voyage, was received with great enthusiasm. The Spanish band gave a grand concert, and the Spanish and English flags were hoisted at the portholes.

Arrived.—According to custom, the Emperor
on New Year's day received the members of the diplomatic corps, in la selle du couronne. The reception took place one o'clock P. M., and is
thus reported in the Moniteur:

The Emperor addressed the Emperor as follows:

Sire, on the first day of the year, which
assembles the diplomatic body around your Majesty, I have the honor, Sire, to offer to you

the following:

The Emperor replied as follows:

I thank the diplomatic body for the good wishes it has expressed on the event of the Emperor's accession. I am really happy, at this time, to have an opportunity to express my representatives that since my accession to the throne I have always professed a most profound respect for recognized rights. Be, then,
assured that the constant aim of my efforts will be to re-establish, everywhere, confidence and
order.

His Majesty passed before the diplomatic
circle, and spoke a few words to each embas-sador, making inquiries especially respecting
the health of their respective families.

It is reported in our papers that the budget of the Ministry of War, for 1862, would be prepared for a strictly peace establishment, the
army being reduced to less than 400,000 men.

Madrid, Oct. 1.—On Friday evening the Madrid, having had a long and eventful
voyage, was received with great enthusiasm. The Spanish band gave a grand concert, and the Spanish and English flags were hoisted at the
portholes.

Arrived.—According to custom, the Emperor
on New Year's day received the members of the diplomatic corps, in la selle du couronne. The reception took place one o'clock P. M., and is
thus reported in the Moniteur:

The Emperor addressed the Emperor as follows:

Sire, on the first day of the year, which
assembles the diplomatic body around your Majesty, I have the honor, Sire, to offer to you

the following:

The Emperor replied as follows:

I thank the diplomatic body for the good
wishes it has expressed on the event of the Emperor's accession. I am really happy, at this time, to have an opportunity to express my
representatives that since my accession to the
throne I have always professed a most profound
respect for recognized rights. Be, then,
assured that the constant aim of my efforts will
be to re-establish, everywhere, confidence and
order.

His Majesty passed before the diplomatic
circle, and spoke a few words to each embas-
sador, making inquiries especially respecting
the health of their respective families.

It is reported in our papers that the budget of the Ministry of War, for 1862, would be prepared for a strictly peace establishment, the
army being reduced to less than 400,000 men.

The Pygmae cleared for New Orleans last
evening with a good freight, a lot of stock and a good list of passengers. We noticed among the passengers, Capt. Greer, of the new steamer
Java, on his way to New Orleans, will return in a few days, to see after his new boat.
